

WETS ARE ILL PLEASED WITH INVESTIGATION

ANNOUNCE PLAN OF PUTTING UP A STRENUOUS FIGHT

WILL URGE THAT DESIRED WET WITNESSES BE SUBPOENAED

COMMITTEE IS BONE DRY BY A RATIO OF FOUR TO ONE

By PAUL R. MALLON
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
Washington, April 6.—Not at all satisfied with developments thus far, the wets today announced their intention of putting up a fight against the conduct of the senate prohibition investigation.

Colonel Julien Codman, prosecuting attorney in the trial of prohibition before the judiciary committee, declared he would file a written petition with the committee urging that the desired wet witnesses be subpoenaed.

Furthermore, it is hinted the wets do not intend to submit meekly to the rulings and procedure of the committee, which is bone dry by a ratio of 4 to 1. They will fight for full presentation of their case, they say.

Assistant Secretary of the Treasury Andrews, the first witness, was recalled to the stand for continued examination at the opening of the second day of the hearings this forenoon.

The temper of the committee is such that the wets are now convinced they will never get any of their bills for repeal and modification of the Volstead act before the senate. They fully expect that the committee will decline to act and that if the bills are reported they will be accompanied by a recommendation for unfavorable action.

ASK THAT SIX BE SUBPOENAED

Washington, April 6.—A demand that at least six witnesses be summoned to Washington by subpoena to relate their experience with prohibition was presented at the opening of the second day of hearings before the senate judiciary subcommittee.

The demand was presented by Colonel Julien Codman, prosecuting attorney of the wets, who said that unless the witnesses were summoned the wet case would be materially hampered.

Senator Reed, democrat, Missouri, moved that the subpoenas be issued, despite a previous adverse ruling of the committee. The committee, however, determined that the matter should be considered later, and Chairman Means announced that the motion would be taken under consideration.

Codman put Assistant Secretary of the Treasury Andrews on the stand first and questioned him regarding expulsions from the prohibition unit.

Andrews admitted that 20 workers in the prohibition unit were barred because of false statements; 121 were excluded for extorting, bribery and solicitation of money; 80 for filing false expense accounts; 61 for collusion and conspiracy.

In the course of his testimony Andrews said he wanted to protect the honest brewer and the legitimate alcohol dealer.

Andrews deplored a ruling of the United States circuit court of appeals at New York yesterday, permitting operation of what he deems questionable denaturing plants. About 340 denaturing plants, which had been put out of business by the prohibition unit, would be restored under the ruling, he said.

Andrews revealed that the art of distilling had recently made enormous progress. He said his agents had recently discovered "anti freeze mixture" and "embalming fluid" were being used in distillation of liquor.

Reed questioned Andrews closely about his proposal that alcohol permits be renewed every year.

He asked Andrews how in a free country he could permit employees to assume such arbitrary authority, either at the head of this bureau or other at the head of this bureau or anywhere along the line," Reed snapped.

Andrews argued that he could better control industrial alcohol diversions if he were allowed to revoke permits.

St. Paul, April 6.—The Standard Gas & Electric Company, one of a large group of utilities operated by the H. M. Byllesby Company, as engineers and managers, has acquired control of the Standard Power & Light Corporation, according to announcement of the Byllesby offices here last night.

The Standard Power & Light Corporation controls 30 public utilities organizations supplying Pittsburgh and surrounding territory with street railway service, gas and light and three-fourths of the street railway service in San Francisco. The new acquisition brings total assets of the Byllesby holdings to $750,000,000, officials announced. Gross earnings of the group previously controlled by the company were $137,000,816. A total of 1,200 communities with 5,500,000 population is served by the operated utilities in 19 states, according to the announcement.

Among the companies affected by the merger directly or indirectly are United Railways Investment Company, California Railway & Power Company, Pittsburgh Utilities Corporation, Philadelphia Company, Duquesne Light Company, Pittsburgh Railways Company, Equitable Gas Company and Market Street Railway Corporation.

The Northern States Power Company and the St. Paul Gas Light Company are members of the Byllesby group.

give the real reason for discharges it could find some other reason.

"You could find a reason to fire me before night," Andrews said.

"I certainly could," Reed snapped. Because of pressure of the Brookhart-Steck case in the senate the committee abandoned its afternoon session and adjourned at noon until tomorrow.

FIGURES ON COAST PATROL WORK GIVEN

Washington, April 6.—The coast patrol captures less than five percent of the rum smuggled into the United States, General Lincoln C. Andrews, in charge of federal prohibition enforcement, told the senate prohibition committee today.

Andrews, questioned by Senator Reed, democrat, Missouri, the lone wet committee member, admitted that the barriers he had erected against smuggling prevented very little foreign liquor, destined for the United States, from entering the country.

GOES INTO SECOND DAY OF CONFERENCE AT CHICAGO

RAIL EMPLOYEES MEET WITH MIDDLEWESTERN RAILWAY REPRESENTATIVES

Chicago, April 6.—(UP)—The $500,000,000 battle over wages went into the second day as railroad employees' representatives met with the middle western railroad representatives.

As the first chapter of a group of nation wide wage increase demands, middle western workers laid down a request for increases of from $1 to $1.64 a day. Similar requests are being made by employees in other sections of the country.

The first day's conference, ended with the matter still hanging high in the air. Representatives of both factions admitted they had reached no decision.

It was said at the conference room today that the meetings would continue between the union representatives and the railroad officials until either an agreement is reached or it is determined that no compromise can be worked out.

CHAPMAN, STILL AN ENIGMA, MEETS HIS END

GOES TO FINAL JUDGMENT UNKNOWN, WITH NONE TO WEEP FOR HIM

LAW OVERTAKES HIM FINALLY IN THE LONG RACE HE HAD RUN

By FRANK BEAMAN
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
Wethersfield Prison, Hartford, Conn., April 6.—Gerald Chapman, who came from no one knows where to flaunt society and defy the law, has gone.

At 12:04 A. M. today the law overtook him finally in the long race he had run with it. A prison warden shuffled his feet, a great weight dropped, a priest implored the mercy of heaven and nine minutes later the prison doctor said:

"I pronounce this man dead."

Chapman went to hear the final judgment, still an enigma, unknown and with none to weep for him.

He spoke his last words before the board of pardons yesterday in the prison here adding to them later in quiet conference with his attorneys. Then a prison guard came and told him that it was time for him to go to the death cell and await the ticking off of the minutes until he should die.

Chapman, not flinching, followed the guard to the cold death house. He held his face close to the bars, while an officer outside struck a match from which the prisoner lighted his cigarette. Chapman puffed silently and reclined upon a couch, as if to rest for his journey into eternity.

Father Michael J. Barry came to the cell to offer once again the spiritual consolation, which Chapman had so often refused.

With death but a few brief hours away, he still received the priest as a friend, but rejected the solace of the church.

A guard came with dinner, pork chops, fried potatoes and coffee. Chapman ate in silence. Perhaps a little of the edge was gone from his appetite.

"I am not afraid to die," was all that he had said when told that his plea to the pardon board had been rejected and his attitude offered proof of the truth of his words.

On through the evening the hours went, 8 o'clock, 9 o'clock, 10 o'clock and two hours left. Then the clock struck 11 and finally 12.

At that moment a guard came into the cell. Chapman turned to him. The long slim hands with their busy fingers were tied.

He walked in silence and with perhaps a defiant leer on his face to the death house.

There a group of officials awaited, newspapermen and others, witnesses the state requires when it enforces the Mosaic law of a life for a life.

Chapman looked curiously over the room, glancing at the faces in front of him and then for a moment at the noose which dangled from the ceiling above, dangled as if reaching for him.

He was led to a spot beneath the noose. The brilliance of the lights heightened the prison pallor and the spots of red in his cheeks. His lips were tightly clenched. Not a word did he utter.

A guard beside him reached up to place the hood. Chapman glanced upward, his last sight on earth that of a death house ceiling.

The hood dropped. Someone coughed, a dry cough, the last thing Chapman heard on earth.

Then there was silence. The guard nodded to Warden H. K. W. Scott. The nod meant that all was ready to end the life of Gerald Chapman. The priest raised his hand.

"May the Lord have mercy on his soul," he intoned, and hardly had the last word been said when Warden Scott shuffled his foot. The movement was answered by a rush of ropes over pulleys. Chapman's body soared high in the air and dropped with a sickening thud, writhing in agony.

Quickly the doctors stepped to his side, watches in hand. One grasped Chapman's wrist. The other bared the breast to the stethoscope.

Minute after minute they stood there, counting the seconds it took the mortal body to cast off life.

HENRY FORD ENDORSES THE VOLSTEAD ACT

SPEAKS AS AN EMPLOYER OF LABOR, IN INTERVIEW WITH UNITED PRESS

ADVOCATES USE OF ARMY AND NAVY TO ENFORCE ITS PROVISIONS

By FOSTER EATON
(Copyright, 1926, by United Press)

Detroit, Mich., April 6.—Speaking as an employer of labor, Henry Ford unqualifiedly endorsed the 18th amendment and the Volstead act in an interview with the United Press, and advocated the use of the army and navy to enforce their provisions if other agencies fail.

Ford was asked his opinion because of a report that he might be called as witness for the dries in the senate beer debate which opened in Washington yesterday. He had not received the request to testify, he said, but declared he was thoroughly in sympathy with strictest enforcement.

"Why should anyone go to Washington?" he asked. "Any thinking person knows that prohibition is a good thing. The only question is one of enforcement."

"And the present law," he continued, "is the kind of a law which accomplishes the purpose for which it was enacted, if it is properly enforced. I mean the Volstead act. When you enforce that you have done something definite."

"But what," he said, "can be accomplished enforcing a law that is mushy?"

"When I say that I am for prohibition, I of course, mean I am for the Volstead act too. That is the crux of the matter."

"Enforce that law and there is no doubt what you will have—you will have prohibition."

"If they really want to enforce the law and cannot in any other way why not utilize the army and navy?" Ford asked.

"Prohibition is a part of the constitution," he explained, "and as such ought to have the benefit of every available enforcement agency."

"The American home is dry," he said, "and the nation gets its tone from the home."

"Liquor may be sensed in the theatre, the legislature, the newspaper," he conceded, "but it is not sensed at all in the millions of homes which comprise our country."

RAIDS MADE AT SO. ST. PAUL BY DRY AGENTS

FORCE OF 30 ARRESTS 17 AND CONFISCATES MUCH LIQUOR

MOVE BY COUNCIL MEMBERS FOLLOWS TO OUST POLICE COMMISSION

St. Paul, April 6.—(UP)—Raids by a force of 30 federal prohibition agents at South St. Paul late yesterday in which 17 were arrested and thousands of dollars worth of liquor confiscated resulted in a move by council members to oust the police commission.

At a meeting last night shortly after the raids were made, two councilmen instituted proceedings to remove the commission for inefficiency. Police had been instructed two months before to clean up gambling and bootleg resorts, it was pointed out.

The motion was voted down, 5 to 2.

Yesterday's raids were said to be the most extensive ever conducted by the northwest federal prohibition department. Squads under separate leadership descended upon resorts simultaneously, fully armed with maps and information compiled previously by undercover men.

Alleged offenders against the Volstead act taken in the clean-up will be arraigned today.

St. Paul, April 6.—Four South St. Paul attorneys today began plans for an attempt to remove the mayor, chief of police and police commissioners of South St. Paul.

A committee of South St. Paul citizens, led by two members of the city council, was organized today to bring about removal proceedings against city officials for their alleged failure to enforce the prohibition law.

The movement came about as a result of a raid by a squad of 28 federal agents who arrested 17 alleged bootleggers late today in eight raids, six of them on one street. Two councilmen attempted to pass a resolution in a council meeting last night providing for the removal of the mayor, police chief and three police commissioners. The council voted it down, 5 to 2.

No date was set for the trial.

VICTOR L. POWER, 10 TIMES MAYOR OF HIBBING, DIED

WAS A SPECTACULAR FIGURE IN STATE POLITICS AND WAS WIDELY KNOWN

HELPED FORCE TOWN'S ANNUAL TAX LEVY TO AROUND $2,000,000

Hibbing, Minn., April 6.—(UP)—Victor Leon Power, ten times mayor of the "richest village in the world," died at his farm near here today. Heart trouble was the cause. Power was a spectacular figure in Minnesota politics and was widely known because of his activity in developing Hibbing.

Through many political campaigns he became popularly known as the "Fighting Mayor of Hibbing." While he held office the entire village was moved a mile south to a new location to permit development of the largest open pit iron mines in the world.

Iron ore made Hibbing wealthy as a village and it was largely through Power's efforts that municipal buildings and schools, marvelous in comparison with those of other communities, were built. He helped to force Hibbing's annual tax levy up to around the $2,000,000 mark.

In 1924 he was a republican candidate for congress in the eighth district and was defeated by William L. Cars, democrat of Duluth, who was elected on a farmer-labor ticket.

Power had been suffering from a severe cold for several days. His condition was not thought serious. When he failed to answer a call in his room early today, Matt Kels, caretaker of the farm, found him dead. Dr. H. R. Weirick estimated he died somewhere around 3 A. M.

Victor L. Power was born in 1881 in Escanaba, Mich., and came to Hibbing in 1899. Power was one of a family of seven children, all of whom entered professions. Four brothers and two sisters survive him. They are Walter J. Power, Hibbing attorney; George F. Power, Iron Mountain, Mich., attorney; Roscoe B. Power, Green Bay dentist; Dr. Lemar Power, Green Bay physician; Mrs. Mary Avery, attorney, and Mrs. Ralph Glynn, Duluth attorney.

Educated in Escanaba and Hibbing public schools, Power studied law at Chicago College of Law and the University of Minnesota. He passed the Minnesota bar examination in 1903. The same year he went into law partnership with his brother, Walter J. Power. Later he practiced law alone and at the time of his death was senior member of the law firm of Power, Mulvihill & Haro.

He was a landholder, farmer, banker and attorney and had accumulated considerable means. He was considered one of the most affluent residents of Hibbing.

He was elected mayor of Hibbing in 1913 and served nine consecutive terms. In 1922 John M. Gannon defeated him for mayor, but in 1923 Power was elected again.

In 1924 Power refused to run for mayor, declined a proffered nomination for governor and became the republican nominee for congressman from the eighth district. Failing to win he did not enter politics again. He had frequently been urged to run for the nomination for governor.

During his early terms as mayor he led the fight against mining interests in the community but later adopted a conciliatory policy and in his later terms of office worked hand in hand with mining officials toward the development of Hibbing.

Power is reported to have been a large landholder in South Hibbing when the village was moved and his profits on that development were reported to be large.

Arrangements for his funeral had not been made early today. It is expected he will be buried here.

SCHWARTZ STORE TO BE REBUILT

Nisswa General Store to be Ready For Summer Tourist Business by June 1st

ONE STORY BRICK BUILDING

Foundation of Structure Destroyed by Fire March 11 to be Used For New Building

The M. K. Swartz store of Nisswa, which was destroyed by fire on March 11, will be replaced by a new and modern one story structure of solid brick, according to Mr. Swartz, who was in the city today on his way to Minneapolis where he will get plans and confer with contractors regarding the building.

The new store will face the highway instead of facing north, as the old store did. The foundation of the old building will be used for the new building. About 300 square feet of additional floor space will be secured through connecting the ends of the L-shaped foundation, and building the back wall on that diagonal.

Mr. Swartz will carry a complete line of general merchandise, as before, and will make a specialty of catering to the tourist trade.

The store will be started at once, according to Mr. Swartz, who states that he expects to have the building ready for occupancy within 60 days, so that he will be ready to handle the tourist trade shortly after June 1st. With the front of the store facing the highway, the store will have a desirable location, and give an added appearance to the Nisswa community.

35 BOYS TAKE ALL DAY HIKE

Boy Scouts And Others Inspect Paper Mill as Part of Day's Journey on Saturday

MANY GAMES PLAYED

Message to Garcia Carried Through Lines, Novel Hiding Places Used For Message

At 9 o'clock Saturday morning 35 boys met at the hill and headed for Lum park on one of the best hikes taken in some time. On arriving at the pavilion Scout Executive Perry Newton opened the door and showed the gang the splendid naval cutter which the Sea Scouts are to have this summer. After feasting their eyes on this for a while and marveling at the bigness of it and then holding an oar up and finding it better than twice the length of any of the boys present, they decided that it was a real outfit. From there the hikers cut across country to the Merrifield bridge across Ahren's hill and made their temporary camp on Gilbert lake. An early dinner was had as everybody seemed to be hungry so that by 12 o'clock everybody was full of food as well as pep, fires extinguished and sides were chosen for games.

The first game, "Capture the Flag," proved rather strenuous for some as when they were caught the two went rolling down the hill in a heap and came back spluttering and wondering if it was fair to tackle. After deciding which team was champion of this, a game called "A Message to Garcia" was played. The message was a small piece of paper and the object of the game was to carry this from one point to another without being captured by the opposing team or if captured, to have the note so hidden in the clothing that they could not find it. A rule had been made at the beginning that they could not strip the captives due to the cold weather. The first message bearer got through the line with the message even after being carefully searched. He gave the message to the party at the other end, pulling it out from between the sole of his shoe where it was hidden. The places of concealing the message seemed innumerable and those searching for it seemed to lack judgment as to where it might be so that in the final count each side had carried the message twice through the enemies line successfully.

About 3 o'clock the trail lead down to Gilbert and over to the bridge to the paper mill. There, through the courtesy of Thomas Johnson, Mr. Peterson showed the entire group through the paper mill and explained the process of converting logs into paper. It proved most interesting and instructive to the boys who had this opportunity. From there the boys scattered to the different sections of the city to their homes. All agreed the hike was a great success.

Red Hair Distinctive Mark of Famous 'Vamps'

Skin pale as elder blossoms, green eyes, and red hair; there you have the up-to-date vamp, writes Mrs. Stanley Wrench in the London Evening News.

All sorts of legends and traditions explain why red hair has usually been looked upon with distrust. The Danes who conquered England were reputed to have red hair, and the fair-headed Saxons hated the color. Even among the old Greek myths we find the Medusa, the terrible Gorgon, had crisp red locks, which afterward were changed to hissing serpents.

But when we leap onward and reach the pages of Homer we find that the immortal Helen of Troy, the most beautiful woman in the world, had red hair, and surely here we discover the secret of the red-haired mix; for although Helen's name has passed down to us right through the centuries as the most radiant being the world has ever seen, she was siren and temptress, too.

The ten years' war, distress and desolation, yet most vividly of all we remember that scene on the walls of Troy when Helen met the old men, and their hearts grew weak as water as they gazed at her and her beauty. Curses died away. Red-haired beauty won.

Cleopatra, "serpent of old Nile," had red hair. She was not beautiful; indeed, authorities declare her to be quite plain, even snub-nosed, but she had red hair, and won Mark Antony, prince of lovers, whose sole thought was to please the Egyptian siren.

Queen Elizabeth must have thought red hair becoming, for it is said she wore a red wig when she wished to look at her best; the ill-fated but lovely Mary Queen of Scots is reputed to have had red hair; and we know that Laura, whom Petrarch has immortalized by his verses, first attracted him by her red tresses.

"Red hair, hot temper," runs an old Midland saying; indeed, it seems to be generally acknowledged that red-haired folk have fiery tempers.

BETHANY SUNDAY SCHOOL

Enjoy Nearly 100 Per Cent Attendance on Easter Sunday—Only Four Absent

Easter Sunday was a gala day for the scholars, teachers and officers of the Swedish Bethany Sunday school. At the regular session at 9:45 a. m. there were only four scholars absent. Three of these were spending the Easter holidays outside the city. There were several visitors present. This day also marked the close of a two weeks drive by the school for their allotment for the building fund of the church, and after checking the cards announcement was made that they had gone "over the top." The school wishes to thank all who contributed to make this possible.

The Sunday school rendered a pleasing program in the evening at 7 o'clock to an audience that filled the church. The program consisted of recitations, solos, duets, class singing, school singing and songs by the assembly, the general theme of all being, "Christ Our Saviour is Risen."

Rev. P. G. Fallquist delivered a Swedish sermon at the morning services at 11 o'clock to a very large audience, after which baptism ceremonies were held for two children.

Misjudged

The Marquis Henri de la Falaise, Gloria Swanson's husband, has opened a bookshop in New York. His popularity has increased in consequence. M. de la Falaise, discussing this increase in popularity, said the other day:

"When a titled foreigner marries an American girl with money the worst motives are imputed to him. It's like the little story:

"Sir, a young baron said to a Broadway banker, 'I have called to ask if you will give assent to my marriage.'"

"Not a cent! Boy, show this young man out."

Muscular Prodigy

There are very many cases on record of infant prodigies, children who could play the piano at three, preach sermons at five, or deliver lectures on scientific subjects at seven. But cases of very early muscular development are much rarer. Russia has a wonder child born at Vladivostok six years ago, who has already the size and muscular strength of a full-grown man. He has a deep bass voice and a full-grown mustache and beard. In mind, however, he is still a child. There is a similar case recorded in English medical annals.

A "Miracle"

People in Alsace, believing that a miracle has taken place, have begun pilgrimages to a girl's grave, which, when opened recently, was found to contain only a handful of pearls and a rosary. An inquiry began immediately, and it was ascertained that the coffin, which had not been tampered with, was nailed down by a workman in the presence of an undertaker. A number of people recall the saintly life of the girl, which strengthens the prevalent belief that a miracle has happened.

SCOUT CAMP GETS $100 COUNTY AID

County Commissioners Make Appropriation For Fixing Road Into Camp Clearwater

SCOUT BOARD MEETS

Finance Committee Named, Money Approved For Assistant Camp Director For Summer

The county commissioners at their meeting Saturday heard a request from the Boy Scout council of the Crow Wing area for aid in fixing the road into the camp of Clearwater lake, and granted $100 to aid in improving the road. The scouts were represented by O. M. Wavvig, of Deerwood, who appealed for the funds on the grounds of caring for the greatest asset of the county, the boys.

Mr. Wavvig stated that the scout council does not intend to make the road a wide and perfect road, rather that it should be kept wild and winding, but improved enough to permit cars to get in and out in all kinds of weather.

The request was made to the county board after a motion to this effect had been passed by the executive board of the scout council, which met on Friday evening to consider a number of matters of interest to the scouts and their parents.

S. R. Adair, chairman of the finance committee, reported that the following men had been appointed on his committee: George D. LaBar, A. G. Trommald, Wm. Haydon, O. A. Peterson, R. E. Wyett, C. A. Ryan, George Sweet and Dr. A. K. Cohen. Plans for the summer camp at Clearwater were discussed and approved. Six cabins are to be constructed which will be insect proof. A splendid swimming pier with high dive and spring board was also approved. Money was appropriated for an assistant camp director which will very materially assist Mr. Newton to make the camp a success.

The camping program for this year is advancing rapidly as it is expected that better than twice the number of boys in camp last year will be at camp this year, necessitating more equipment and more adequate leadership.

Modernistic Influence in Clothes for Women

The modernistic influence in clothes becomes more pronounced. One sees many wraps and gowns decorated with the colorful appliqued designs that have been inspired by costumes created for the French exposition. The effect is singularly attractive if the motifs are applied to a background of cloth of gold and silver.

For street and daytime wear there is a decided leaning toward shades of gray in place of beige tones, and these are spoken of as important colors in the spring mode. Frequently the entire costume is carried out in tones of gray, but quite as often the lighter color appears in fur trimmings which are matched by hat, hosiery and shoes.

The Spanish Shawl

The most important feature in novelties is the Spanish shawl in its latest variant. It is all of one color—magenta, yellow, blue, green or white—with ground of loose mesh and the pattern of flowers and leaves more closely woven, to give a repousse effect. The Spanish shawl of vivid colors in embroidery is still worn, but it must be unusual in design.

Hats Should Be Fitted

A word about hats: If you are up to date your small toque or turban must be draped and designed on the head. Hat fittings are quite as important as gown fittings and take up quite as much time.

Colors in History

Strong colors are a sign of predominating masculine influence and have prevailed in color history even in the vigorous reign of Louis XIV in the Renaissance. On the advent of Louis XV, and the combination of wealth with the rise of woman's influence delicate tints and shades were popular for the first time. At present there are more than 2,000,000 distinctions in color.

Leisure and Laziness

Leisure is time for doing something useful; this leisure the diligent man will obtain, but the lazy man never; so that, as Poor Richard says, a life of leisure and a life of laziness are two things.—Benjamin Franklin.

URGE ENACTMENT OF MODIFIED FARM RELIEF

Washington, April 6.—(UP)—Enactment of the modified farm relief program agreed upon by representatives of the Des Moines conference and Cotton Producers associations was urged today before the house agriculture committee by C. L. Stayley, general manager of the Oklahoma Cotton Growers' Cooperative association.

In endorsing the modified bill of the corn belt committee, Stayley told the committee that he represented cotton growers in 12 southern states. His action was no evidence of the united front between cotton growers and western farmers.

The major change in the program, Stayley said, was the inclusion of corn as a basic commodity, subjecting it to the proposed equalization fee. Collection of the fee, under the bill, however, would be deferred for three years.

WAITER ADMITS SHOOTING HIS TWO EMPLOYERS TO DEATH

Freeport, N. Y., April 6.—(UP)—Mrs. William Watson, said to have been the wife of "Sliding Bill" Watson, once well known burlesque actor, and Henry Kothe, were shot to death here today.

The murder occurred at the 300 club, a road house of which the two were the proprietors.

First knowledge of the crime reached police when Karl Kieferle, a waiter, surrendered and said he had shot the two to death. He had been employed at the road house until last night, when he was discharged.

DOZEN ATTORNEYS FIGHT OVER AGE OF STREET TRADESMAN

Minneapolis, April 6.—(UP)—A dozen attorneys and city officials fought today over the age of a youthful street tradesman.

The lad is charged with selling a newspaper in violation of the street trades act. The law provides that boys between 12 and 16 may engage in street trades upon obtaining a permit from the board of education.

The boy and his father allege he is 12 years old, but authorities have a birth certificate saying he is only 11.

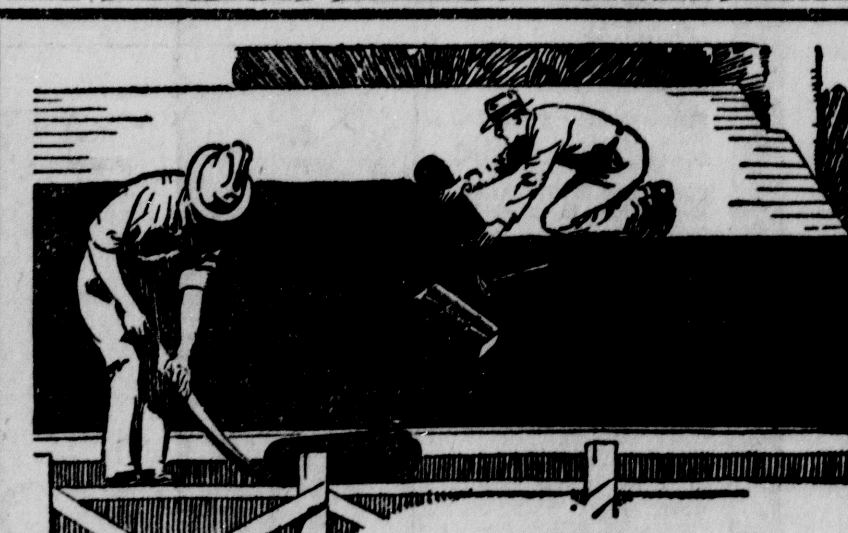

PRESIDENT ASKED TO CALL PARLEY ON INTERNATIONAL LAW

Washington, April 6.—(UP)—President Coolidge today was asked to call another conference of nations to make "definite, more certain and co-operative," the body of law by which international conduct is to be ruled, in a resolution introduced in the senate by Senator Means, republican, Colorado.

The resolution was introduced after a short speech by Senator Means in commemoration of the ninth anniversary of the declaration of war with Germany.

NORRIS RESOLUTION ON MAKING PUBLIC VOTES TAKEN SECRETLY

Washington, April 6.—(UP)—The Norris resolution to permit publication of votes taken in secret in nominations was favorably reported by the senate rules committee today.

WISH TO BROADCAST LIVESTOCK NEWS

Springfield, Ill., April 6.—(UP)—The Chicago Livestock Exchange today renewed its fight to broadcast market news.

A motion for leave to file a petition in mandamus to compel appellate court judges of the first district to dissolve an injunction which restrains the broadcasting was presented to the Illinois supreme court today.

"Irreparable Loss" to its members is resulting from the injunction, granted at the request of the Radiophone broadcasting corporation, the exchange says in asking that the restraining order be removed pending a final decision by the supreme court.

Smart Kid

"Several years' experience with youngsters has taught me that you cannot outsmart them," says a city bus conductor. "Last Sunday morning two little girls, one of them about five years old and the other about six, boarded my empty bus. They selected a seat and the younger one proceeded to perch herself on her sister's lap. Before taking their fares, I asked why they were sitting like that when there was so much room. 'Why?' asked the older one, 'She is my baby and I am holding her in my arms and I am only going to pay one fare.'"

BETTER HOMES IN AMERICA

THE elements favoring and hampering real home life and the development of children in the city home, as opposed to the suburban or country home, are discussed by two specialists on the subject, Dr. John M. Gries and James Spear Taylor, in the current issue of the "Child Welfare Magazine" published today. The entire issue is given over to the advancement of the cause of Better Homes in America. Dr. Gries is chief of the Division of Building and Housing of the Department of Commerce, and a director of Better Homes in America. Mr. Taylor is his assistant.

City life has certain advantages, in most instances, such as the convenience of running water which eases the burden of housework considerably. Also, there is commonly less danger from polluted water, and many city homes are connected with gas or electric lines, or both. Laundry may be called for and delivered on short notice. Groceries and fresh milk are delivered to the door. Restaurants can furnish meals inexpensively when it is inconvenient to prepare them at home. Paved sidewalks minimize the dirt tracked into the home. All of these elements greatly reduce the labor required for many housekeeping tasks.

On the other hand, the article points out, cities are sooty, necessitating more frequent washing and house-cleaning. There must be more laundering for members of the family who must make a presentable appearance. Laundering and other tasks performed outside the home must be paid for. Frequently the mother must seek employment outside the home—a serious handicap in the upbringing of children. In many other cases children of the family go to work, often under none too satisfactory conditions.

Many city families live in such congested districts that sufficient air and sunshine for children and infants is hard to obtain. City homes are frequently smaller than country homes, and the problem of bringing up children increases greatly as the space and number of rooms in the home go below a certain point. In a small flat it is much harder for children to do effective work in their lessons and take an interest in reading or find scope for developing aptitude for mechanical contrivances or hand-made things. It is harder to maintain high standards where a room is used jointly for cooking and living purposes. Also, families living in apartments are subject to the annoyance of neighbors with differing tastes respecting the radio and the phonograph, and who may be boisterous, particularly at the time when children should go to sleep.

The article points out that some of these difficulties may be overcome through home reading, home music, games for the whole family, and frank discussions between parents and children, not only of the day's happenings, but of the deeper problems of life. Most city families may have some sort of occasional excursions to the country. The positive advantages of city life include the availability of libraries and the opportunity for the better development of a child with any marked ability or aptitude.

Concluding, the article says:

"The family with a city home has a very wide range of problems to solve, as all of this discussion may have served to indicate. It is in line with the whole development of our modern civilization that the specialized study of recurring problems by individuals and the joint consideration of their conclusions leads to the birth of new means of solving old problems, and to a spirit and attitude of mind which makes for progress. For that reason it is our belief that Better Homes demonstrations embodying the results of careful research into the problems of the city home deserve a high and established place among the many activities of the modern city."

DESIRABILITY OF A FOURTH MEAL

SOME agitation is being started in the West by grocers who want to sell more groceries, favoring the institution of a fourth meal at 4 p. m. That kind of a fourth meal is nothing new. Every kid is hungry at 4 o'clock and makes a raid of the pantry when he comes home from school. Your children are doing that very thing now and you did it too when you were young. That's why Mother's cookie jar entailed ceaseless work on her part to keep it half-filled at least.

And even adults of Brainerd indulge in this fourth meal. We know staid storekeepers who slip away for home and indulge in their cup of coffee. And can Sister or Mother or the Missus make coffee cake? We'll say she can.

In European countries where long work hours are the rule, and even in America where farm labor entails long hours, extra meals are a natural result. For instance if a man starts work at 4 a. m., he grabs a pickup lunch. At 9 a. m. comes the regular breakfast, at noon the dinner, at 4 p. m. coffee, and then a late supper, with nothing to do in the eating line until next day. A man can eat a lot when he works a lot. We mean in the way of manual labor.

Persons who lead sedentary lives should be abstemious. Over eating causes baywindows, high blood pressure, diabetes and other distasteful things, and creates business for the doctors.

It's funny to hear some housewife talk about her husband and say, "John is such a delicate eater." We have seen that same John get a lunch at Brady's at 10:30 a. m. and another at 4 p. m.

Those West Coast grocers aren't bringing out anything new. Fourth meals like spare tires have been known for years, have been practiced secretly in some cases and openly in others. It's nothing new. Some households have a fifth lunch, after going to the Park or Lyceum. That's when the forage on the ice box gets under way about 11 p. m.

WE ARE MEAT EATERS

NEARLY 109 million head of live stock went to appease Uncle Sam's appetite for meat during 1925, according to a statement issued by the National Live Stock and Meat Board. This figure was divided as follows: Cattle 14,705,986; calves 10,099,195; sheep and lambs 15,453,853; hogs 68,294,297.

The average person ate nearly one-half pound of meat per day the figures showed. There was an increase in the use of beef, veal, lamb and mutton, but pork showed a decline due, it was believed, to the prevailing shortage of hogs. More veal was consumed than ever before in the history of the country.

THE less popular cuts of meat are just as nourishing and can be made as palatable as the so-called choice cuts. The former may cause the housewife more cooking labor.

CLAIMS CHARGES WERE TRUMPED UP

ROY W. FRAZIER IS A CANDIDATE FOR SHERIFF, DIVIDE COUNTY, N. D.

Crosby, N. D., April 6.—(UP)—Preliminary hearing of Roy W. Frazier, chairman of the elected republican state central committee of North Dakota on charge of embezzling $186 while clerk of the Divide county court, is scheduled for today. Frazier claims the charges were trumped up by political enemies to discredit his candidacy for sheriff of Divide county.

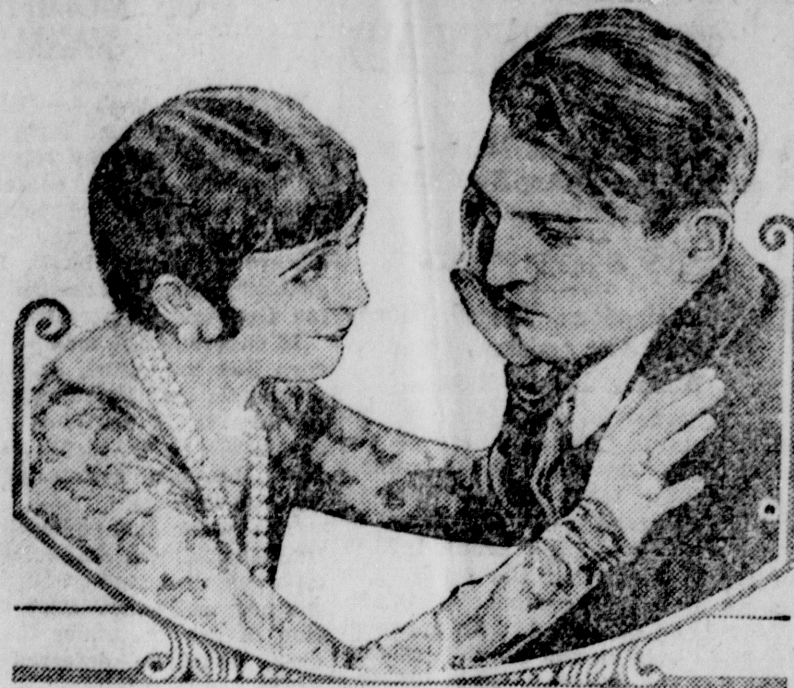

William Langer, Bismarck, former attorney general, will represent the defense. Judge L. J. Palda, Minot, has been named special assistant state's attorney to prosecute the case at the request of State's Attorney Olaf Braatz.

Frazier was elected chairman of the republican committee, which is nonpartisan in majority and unrecognized by the national committee. Judge B. F. Spaulding, Fargo, heads the administration republican committee.

Among the valuables she wears in the picture are two bracelets of diamonds and emeralds, a rope of beautifully matched pearls and a necklace of one hundred matched blue white diamonds.

Tonight's Vaudeville Bill at the New Park—Trained Seals on Program

Hammer and Hammer a comedy, singing, talking and dancing act opens the five acts vaudeville bill at the New Park tonight. This act is a fast and snappy act with one of the team doing some exceptional fine contortion work.

Miss Jessie Millar the No. 2 act is a talented cornetist, who is bound to delight the musical lovers of Brainerd. She also plays the piano accordion in a very high class manner.

The Sylvia Revue the big dance act represents grace, youth and women and one man. Special scenery. The act comprises three acts.

Quinn and Keeler, here's two men who get a lot of laughs out of "oil" but it's all in fun. They also use special scenery.

The final act is the first of its kind seen in Brainerd. The "Frisco Seals." These animals exhibit almost human intelligence in a variety of stunts including formation of a brass band, and also do some very good juggling.

The feature picture is "Lover's Island" a thrilling sea story featuring James Kirkwood and Hope Hampton.

POLICE AND TEXTILE WORKERS IN CLASHES

50 POLICEMEN BAR PASSAGE OF 1,000 STRIKERS OVER BRIDGE

STONE THROWING INDULGED IN AT PASSAIC, N. J.

Passaic, N. J., April 6.—(UP)—Fighting between police and textile mill strikers broke out anew here today.

Fifty policemen barred the way of 1,000 strikers who were attempting to cross a bridge separating the town of Wallington from Passaic. The strikers, when they met police, were said to have opened hostilities by throwing stones and bottles.

The police answered with their clubs and fists and a free for all fight ensued.

Ten strikers were arrested. The strikers finally were dispersed and they left the scene in small groups, making no effort to form in line as ordered by police. Threats of further disturbances were seen in the strikers' announcement that they would meet again in Wallington when their numbers would be largely increased.

RIVERS, HARBORS BILL CARRIES $36,000,000

Washington, April 6.—(UP)—A rivers and harbors bill carrying authorizations approximating $36,000,000 was made public this afternoon by the house rivers and harbors committee.

The committee is expected to take favorable action on the measure next week. It carries authorizations for improvements on 23 projects and empowers the chief of engineers to make preliminary surveys of 150 others.

The bill authorizes expenditure of $250,000 for a survey of the all American canal across New York state.

Authorizations for improvements of the following projects are contained in the bill:

Mississippi river between Missouri and Minneapolis; Duluth-Superior harbor, Minnesota and Wisconsin.

Projects upon which the chief of engineers is authorized to make surveys include:

Duluth-Superior harbor, Minnesota and Wisconsin.

Menominee harbor and river, Michigan and Wisconsin.

FUNDAMENTALIST-MODERNIST ARGUMENT

Clarence, Mo., April 6.—(UP)—The people of this Missouri town went to the polls today to decide the fundamentalist-modernist controversy and incidentally to elect a mayor.

The chief factor in a bitter campaign has been the virgin birth of Christ and other disputed religious questions. The campaign took on a religious aspect with the announcement of the candidacy of J. C. Maupin, former Baptist minister.

Maupin said he was not a fundamentalist. Also it was remembered that he had supported Dr. A. Wakefield Slater in 1922 when the latter was removed as head of William Jewell College, Liberty, Mo., because of a too liberal interpretation of the Bible.

The fundamentalists promptly put a candidate in the field, L. J. Peterman, a retired farmer. The campaign has been unrivaled for recrimination and acrimony and the largest vote in the history of the city is expected.

FEAR ACCIDENT TO PILOT OF ARCTIC POLAR FLIGHT

Fairbanks, Alaska, April 6.—(UP)—Fear that some mishap has befallen Captain George H. Wilkins and Pilot Ben Eielson of the Detroit Arctic expedition, was admitted here today. The two fliers sailed northward in the plane Alaskan last week, transporting supplies to Point Barrow, last outpost of the adventure.

Word came back that they reached Barrow safely but what has happened to them on the return journey is unknown.

BRAKEMAN WAS ACCIDENTALLY KILLED

Madison, Wis., April 6.—(UP)—Harris S. Potts, brakeman on the Northwestern railway, was instantly killed here today when he fell between the cars.

Had to Control Appetite

Eating between meals was once considered a crime at Harvard university. Students whose appetites were not satisfied with three square meals a day 275 years ago subjected themselves to fines. This fact was disclosed recently when an old set of college regulations was unearthed in the library of that institution.

CHAPMAN, STILL AN ENIGMA, MEETS HIS END

60, 50, 40 beats to the minute, and finally it faded away.

"I pronounce this man dead," announced the chief physician.

The soul of Gerald Chapman had gone and only the body was left.

The career, which came to a close at the end of a rope today, was one of the most astounding in modern criminal annals.

Twenty years ago he launched on his profession of banditry, which reached its peak with the New York mail robbery of more than four years ago, when the loot ran more than $2,400,000 and his subsequent escape from confinement. Then came the murder of Policeman James Skelly at New Britain, Conn. The crime was pinned on Chapman. He was arrested at Muncie, Ind., and a year ago his race with the law which had his life as the winner's prize began.

Calm, analytical, defiant, he said day by day in court and was generalissimo of his own defense. At night he studied law, economics, politics. By day he applied these things in the fight for freedom.

But the state won and Chapman was sentenced to be hanged.

Money came from an unknown source, but in quantities always sufficient. The fight was carried through all the courts. The president of the United States was forced to commute a federal sentence so Connecticut could exact its penalty. Three times reprieves were granted but he was finally hanged today.

Hartford, Conn., April 6.—Gerald Chapman, notorious bandit, is dead and buried.

Hanged at Wethersfield prison a few minutes after midnight for murdering a New Britain policeman, he was buried without religious service before noon.

The body was taken from the morgue in a plain black hearse to Mount Saint Benedict's cemetery.

And then, at the very grave of Chapman, there was a new element of that mystery which had surrounded him to the end.

A heavily veiled woman, who turned away from all gaze and whose name was not revealed, rode with Judge Frederick J. Groehl, Wray M. Riley and Joseph M. Freedman, Chapman's lawyers, to the cemetery and stood beside the grave as Chapman's body was lowered.

Word went out that this was Chapman's sister, a survivor of the mysterious family from which he sprang. Another rumor was that the woman was an old sweetheart who associated with the bandit in his prosperous days.

The burial was without religious services of any kind. The little group stood, the three men with heads bared, while the undertakers lowered the body into the grave and poured fresh earth upon the plain casket.

The bandit was buried in consecrated ground, but no priest was there to offer a final prayer.

It was but the work of a minute to lay away the strange man, and to write the last word in the history of Gerald Chapman.

CHILDREN'S COURT TO HEAR LATEST BROWNING CASE

NEW YORK MILLIONAIRE ACTED AS GODFATHER TO CINDERELLA

ROOMING HOUSE OWNER IS TO TELL OF PARTIES STAGED

New York, April 6.—(UP)—The children's court is likely to hear the details of Edward W. Browning's latest adventure as godfather to a Cinderella.

Vincent T. Pissara, agent of the Children's society, announced after an investigation of Browning's attachment to Frances (Peaches) Heenan, 15 year old, that he would appear before a judge with an affidavit charging that she was a delinquent minor and that her mother, Mrs. Catherine Heenan, was an undesirable guardian for her.

Demand for court action will be based largely on evidence given by Mrs. Mary Conlin, rooming house owner. Mrs. Conlin is said to have evicted Mrs. Heenan and her daughter as "undesirable tenants" after a succession of parties in the Heenan room.

New York, April 6.—(UP)—Vincent Pissara, superintendent of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children, today secured a summons returnable in court Thursday for Mrs. Catherine Heenan, mother of Frances Heenan, Edward W. Browning's latest "Cinderella." Another summons for Frances was issued.

AFTERMATH OF BROOKHART-STECK CASE BEING HEARD

Washington, April 6.—(UP)—Senator Caraway, democrat, Arkansas, resuming debate on the Brookhart-Steck senatorial contest, reiterated his charge that Senator Brookhart, republican, Iowa, had repudiated his agreement with Daniel Steck, democrat, for the recount.

"Both agreed as to the manner of accounting for ballots," he said, "but after the result was found to be unfavorable to Brookhart he repudiated his agreement."

Caraway said: "I believe every legal ballot was counted."

CLINGS TO PILOT AND SAVED FROM AN AWFUL DEATH

Kendallville, Ind., April 6.—(UP)—Clinging to the pilot of a speeding New York Central locomotive for several thousand feet, Susan Banta, 18, saved her life in a grade crossing accident here today. Her brother Maurice, 16, was seriously injured when their automobile was caught by the train at the unguarded crossing.

As the locomotive smashed the automobile and hurled it to the side of the tracks, the girl was thrown to the pilot, where she clung until the train was brought to a stop.

TWO BROTHERS ARE HELD ON MURDER CHARGES MADE

Racine, Wis., April 6.—(UP)—Local detectives are expected to return here from Oelwein, Ia., today with James Greco, wanted for murder in connection with the slaying of Sam Basile here on December 31, 1923. Word came that he was captured in the Iowa city yesterday.

Greco will be placed in the county jail where his brother Arthur is also held on a murder charge, in connection with the killing of Frank Sierodynaki. William Greco, another brother, is a deputy sheriff of Racine county.

This is believed the first time in the history of Wisconsin that two brothers will be held in jail on murder charges in connection with different killings.

SPANISH FLIERS CONTINUE FLIGHT

Algiers, April 6.—(UP)—Two of the airplanes carrying the Spanish fliers, Captains Gallarza, Loriga and Estevez, took off on the second leg of the Madrid to Manila flight at 8:55 o'clock this morning. The third pilot followed at 9:05 o'clock. The aviators hoped to omit Tunis, formerly the second scheduled stop, and go by way of Biskra and Gabes direct to Tripoli.

Tunis, North Africa, April 6.—One of the Spanish Madrid to Manila planes, which left Madrid yesterday landed here at 2 P. M. today. The other two continued on their way to Tripoli. The plane here is commanded by Captain Estevez.

State Bank Closed

Minneapolis, April 6.—(UP)—The Guarantee State bank here was closed today by order of A. J. Veigel, state banking commissioner, and a bookkeeper arrested on a charge of embezzlement. He has already confessed a shortage of $5,000, according to Veigel.

Claude Radeff, 20, the accused employee, had been working in the bank since last June. He has been in charge of cash drawers.

Commissioner Veigel and Paul Skahen, assistant Hennepin county attorney, said Radeff had signed a confession admitting peculations of $5,000, but that the shortage probably would reach $5,800. The youth is now held in custody in the Minneapolis jail and was to be arraigned late today.

Commissioner Veigel said the closing of the bank was partly due to the alleged embezzlements and partly to poor paper.

INTERCITY BUSINESS PLANNED BY BUS COMPANY FADES

St. Paul, April 6.—Prospects that the Northland Transportation Company will be permitted to do an inter-city business in the Twin Cities faded yesterday.

An official of the company admitted on the stand before the railroad and warehouse commission that there is no necessity for the line and Ivan Bowen, commissioner, declared the state law provides that a bus permit may not be granted unless both convenience and necessity of the public for such service be shown.

Bowen said it appeared the company wanted to operate its busses through to St. Paul but not at the expense of the company.

C. E. Wickman, president of the company, admitted there was no demand for such service from the passenger public.

Danger In Coughs That Hang-On

Neglected coughs often lead to worse trouble. Yet there is a simple method based on the famous Dr. King's New Discovery, which usually breaks the worst cough entirely in 24 hours.

Here is the method: You take just one teaspoonful and hold it in your throat for 15 or 20 seconds before swallowing it. It has a double action. It not only soothes and heals irritation, but also removes the phlegm and congestion which are the real cause of the coughing. So the most stubborn cough soon disappears completely.

Dr. King's New Discovery is for coughs, chest colds, bronchitis, spasmodic croup, etc. Fine for children, too—no harmful drugs. Very economical, as the dose is only one teaspoonful. At all good druggists. Ask for "Me and the boy friend"

You know them, bless their hearts. A pair of youngsters, really, in spite of their self-reliant air and their fast-vanishing teens. The girl—slim, clear-eyed, merry; the boy—flippant, a bit arrogant, full of secret, earnest plans for success.

They like each other. They go to the movies together, dance, quarrel a bit. They don't believe in early marriages. But her eyes shine when she speaks of him. "Me and the boy friend."

One of these days, suddenly, they'll be grown up. Man and wife, those fearless youngsters. A home to plan, life to face. A budget, a savings account, economies.

They'll make mistakes, but they'll learn quickly. She'll begin to be canny in the spending of money—to question prices and values. She'll begin to read about the things she plans to buy, to find out all she can about them. She'll become a regular reader of advertisements.

They'll help her to become the capable, wise housewife she wants so much to be. They'll tell her what clothes are best and what prices to pay for them. They'll tell her about the foods to buy, the electric appliances, the linoleums and draperies. They'll help her, as the advertisements in this newspaper can help you.

And she'll meet her responsibilities and fulfill her duties easily and well. She won't become a tired, flustered, inefficient drudge. Because her home will be modern, attractive, well-run, she'll keep young—through the speedy years she'll retain much of that shining-eyed, merry freshness. She and the "boy friend."

BIG LEAGUE HOME PARKS ARE UNDER SNOW

MANY OPENING DAYS MAY HAVE TO BE POSTPONED

CLOSE TO APRIL 13, WINTER IS STILL RAGING IN MOST OF THE NORTH

IN CHICAGO BOTH PARKS ARE COVERED BY SIX INCHES OF SNOW

By BERT M. DENBY
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
Chicago, April 6.—While the major league baseball teams cavort about the southland defeating lesser teams under sunny skies, their home parks under six inches of snow look more like the middle of winter instead of April and the possibility of numerous opening day games being postponed appears likely.

As the teams are gathering up their paraphernalia on their way home for the opening date, April 13, winter is still raging in most of the north.

In Chicago both parks are covered by more than six inches of snow and throughout the middle west it is so unseasonably cold that the fans are beginning to wonder if it will be possible to open the season on time.

The officials are doubtful but the parks, already in pretty fair shape before the storm hit, are still undergoing the annual rejuvenation while everybody hopes.

At least one bit of cheering news has come out of the south to give the fans something more than snow to think about.

It is the fact that the major league hitters seem to have struck their stride at last after going about during the spring doing little hitting.

Sunday seemed to have brought about the change and the hitters seemed to have followed up their streak. Yesterday was a horrible day on the pitchers.

The Washington Senators clicked off 18 hits and 13 runs off Giant pitchers in Birmingham. The Browns of St. Louis went on a rampage to win from Chattanooga of the Southern association, 16 to 8. Ty Cobb's gang beat the Atlanta, Ga., team 16 to 1.

At Hot Springs the Pittsburgh Pirates romped over the Indianapolis team of the American association, 12 to 5.

Misfortune as to injuries and illness may already overtake two of the teams. Pleinich, Cincinnati catcher, was called home by illness in his family. This leaves the Reds with only Ivy Wingo, as the only veteran catcher. Johnny Hodapp, third baseman of the Cleveland Indians, sustained a sprained ankle and may be out for several days.

EDMONTON GIRLS DEFEAT CHICAGO TRI-CHIS 19 TO 17

Chicago, April 6.—(UP)—Six thousand fans last night saw five girls from Edmonton, Canada, win the girls' basketball championship of the world by defeating the Chicago Tri-Chis, 19 to 17 in a hard fought game.

The Edmonton team by its win kept intact a record that boasts "not a defeat in four years." The Tri-Chis gave the crowd a thrill in the first minute of play when they got off to a three point lead, but by half time the Edmonton girls had closed the gap and forged ahead 10 to 9.

The second half was close through-

A feature of tonight's card will be exhibitions by Eric Rademacher and Gustav Froelich, sensational German swimmers.

Rademacher will swim a 100 yard breast stroke race and Froelich will give an exhibition of backstroke swimming.

Give your pipe a chance!

SOME pipes were "born with two strikes on 'em." Just never had a chance to offer their best. You can judge your pipe only by the tobacco you put in it. If you haven't smoked P. A., your pipe hasn't had its chance. To those men who know the keenest pipe-enjoyment, Prince Albert stands out like a beacon of cheer on a moonless night.

Prince Albert has put pipes into the mouths of more men than any other tobacco that ever came down the pike . . . and has kept them there! Because no other tobacco is like P. A. Cool and fragrant as mountain air murmuring through the pines. Sweet as the breath of spring.

P. A. won't bite your tongue or parch your throat, because the Prince Albert process cut out bite and parch right at the outset of P. A.'s brilliant career. This means that you can hit it up with your jimmy-pipe and P. A. from the minute breakfast is over until you nestle down between the sheets at night. You not only can, but will!

If you're looking for proof, you needn't search beyond the nearest shop where they hand out smoke-gladness in tidy red tins marked "Prince Albert." Give your pipe a chance. Pack it with P. A. and light up. That first wonderful pull will tell you P. A. was simply made-to-order for you!

P. A. is sold everywhere in tidy red tins, potted and half-potted tin humidors, and pound crystal-glass humidors with sponge-moistener top. And always with every bit of bite and parch removed by the Prince Albert process.

48 CHILDREN AT AUXILIARY PARTY

Children of Disabled Veterans Entertained With Interesting Program and Get Baskets

AT CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

Musical Numbers by Brainerd Kids, Dance Numbers by Minneapolis Girl, are Features

The auxiliary of the American Legion, unit No. 255, entertained 48 children of the trainee colony in Crow Wing at an Easter party given in the Chamber of Commerce rooms on Saturday morning, April 3. The children are the sons and daughters of the disabled veterans in training work in the county.

A very interesting program was given, including music and dance numbers. The Winkem, Blinkem, and Nod orchestra played two selections, under the direction of Mrs. Louis O. Johnson.

Miss Katherine Bellows, a juvenile entertainer from Minneapolis, presented two very clever dance numbers, accompanied by Mrs. Walter F. Wieland, Parker Campbell and Bobbie Ebert, members of the boys choir of the St. Paul's Episcopal church, sang, "Father in Heaven," accompanied by Mrs. R. T. Campbell. Gladys and Leonard Johnson gave two violin selections, and Little Miss Marcella Holm sang, "My Wild Irish Rose," accompanied by the two little Johnson violinists. Brainerd is fortunate in having such accomplishments among its younger generation.

Each child present was given a basket filled with goodies after which a luncheon consisting of sandwiches, cookies and cocoa was served to all.

The committee in charge of the entertainment was composed of Mesdames Jack Alton, Bert Orne, Joseph Mraz, Arthur Koop, Elmer Franson, Basil T. Heath, and Clyde E. Parker, and Miss Mardell Mraz. A great deal of credit is due this committee, as activities of this sort are going to help the unit win a few, if not all, of the trophies awarded at the 8th annual American Legion and Auxiliary convention to be held at Mankato on August 9, 10, and 11.

2 ROAD CONTRACTS LET BY CO. BOARD

J. B. Schmit of Brainerd Awarded $9,888.25 Job to Grade And Gravel S. R. No. 4

AUDIT REPORT ACCEPTED

County Has $229,392.55 on Deposit in Various Banks of County, as Shown by Report

A number of road matters were discussed at the meeting of the board of county commissioners on Saturday, with the board awarding two contracts for work on roads in the county. In all cases, the bids accepted were under the county engineer's estimate.

J. B. Schmit of Brainerd was the successful bidder for the grading and graveling of 1 3-10 miles on State Aid road No. 4, north of Crosby, his bid totalling $9,888.25. This was the lowest bid for the job. When completed, this piece of road will complete the link between Crosby and Emily.

A. B. Peterson, of Little Falls, won the contract for the concrete structure across Clinck Creek, along S. R. No. 4, in the piece of road which is to be graded and gravelled there. The Berger Mfg. Co. of St. Paul got the contract for 18 inch and 24 inch steel culverts, with a bid of $551.04.

The contract for the widening of the road around the east side of Ahren's Hill, north of the Mississippi river along the Merrill road, was granted to J. C. Humphrey, of Deerwood, whose bid of $2,726.50 was the lowest submitted. This work calls for making the road 30 feet wide instead of 24 feet, with 2000 feet of guard rail along the east side of the road.

A committee of townsmen from Ross Lake township attended the meeting and asked to be given a voice in the appointment of a maintenance man in the township, with the right of recommending one. The matter was left as at present for this year, to be considered again at the time of the next appointments.

Allen township was present with a delegation, regarding the maintenance man in that township, and asking that the matter be attended to at once. The matter was left with the county highway engineer.

The county board granted the request of the Boy Scout council for $100 to aid in the improvement of the road leading the camp on Clearwater lake. O. M. Wanvig represented the council in making the request.

Nekay Lake township requested that the road from Cook's corner to Deerwood be considered with a view to making it a White Line road. The matter was taken under advisement, to be looked into at the earliest opportunity.

The use of the county grader to grade a piece of road four miles long on this road was requested, and this was granted, with promise made that this piece should be cleared and blasted for the work.

The board received the report of the auditing committee, which submitted a check-up of the accounts, vouchers, and books of the county treasurer, showing the balance charged against him by the county auditor. The report showed that the county has on deposit in the various banks of the county $229,392.55.

The board appropriated $25 to the Grand Army of the Republic to aid in the expense of observing Memorial day.

N. W. HOSPITAL ANNUAL MEETING

Protestant Churches Hospital Association to Meet at 7:30 O'clock This Evening

REVISION OF BYLAWS UP

Amendments Proposed to Articles of Incorporation, Reports of Officers of Association

The Protestant Churches Hospital association will hold its annual meeting at the Northwestern hospital at 7:30 o'clock this evening. All members, old and new, are requested to be present to consider important business matters. If the attendance is as large as expected, the meeting room at the hospital will not be large enough to hold all the members and an adjournment will be taken to the church parlors of the First Methodist church.

Proposed amendments to the articles of incorporation will be brought up and a revision of the bylaws. At present the board of directors is composed of pastor and lay member of each church, and as Crow Wing, Cass and Aitkin counties are represented, one may sense the size of such a board. The new amendment suggested is to make the board of directors one of 12 members.

Reports of officers will include that of President Rev. A. Samuelson, Superintendent Miss Crowl and Treasurer Rev. P. G. Fallquist.

An election of directors will be held.

PROGRAM AND LUNCH

For Benefit of Northeast Brainerd Boosters Baseball Team on Friday Evening

Preparations are being made for a big time at the meeting of the Northeast Brainerd Improvement League to be held on Friday evening at the Lowell school. At the last meeting of the League it was voted to give financial and moral support to the Northeast Brainerd Boosters baseball team of the city league, and, as usual, they are putting their words into action.

President Mrs. J. H. Herbert is completing arrangements for the program which promises to be snappy and entertaining. Manager Arthur Ohms, of the baseball team, has assured those in charge that the players and friends will be on hand to see that everyone gets their share of the coffee, doughnuts and sandwiches.

After the program there will be a few important business matters disposed of, and the balance of the evening will be given over to a social time. The program starts promptly at 8 o'clock.

EASTER CANTATA BY M. E. CHOIR

Chorus of 20 Voices Presented "The Easter Alleluia" on Sunday Evening

MRS. A. E. HAGEL DIRECTOR

Chorus, Quartet and Solo Work Rendered Beautifully by Methodist Singers

The chorus choir of the First Methodist church on Sunday evening presented their cantata, "The Easter Alleluia," before a large and appreciative congregation, with a number of solos and quartet numbers blending with the chorus work in a presentation of much merit.

The cantata opened with a choral selection, "O'er Kedron's Stream," followed by an alto and tenor duet, "O My Father," sung by Mrs. Ray Hall and Lawrence Ericsson. The cantata reached a climax with a wonderful rendition by the entire chorus of "On to Calvary," with Miss Lila Reed singing the obligato soprano, her voice carrying in clear beautiful tones above the swelling volume of the choir.

Among those who had solo parts were Miss Reed, Mrs. Pearl Fitzsimmons, Miss Orva Jones, Mrs. Ben Anderson, George Senn, Ben Anderson, Dr. C. J. Reed, and Melville Bredenberg.

The cantata was well directed by Mrs. A. E. Hagel, whose work during the last several weeks in the rehearsing of the cantata brought forth splendid results in the presentation on Easter evening. Miss Helen Lammon presided at the piano in exceptional manner. The chorus was composed of the following: sopranos, Mrs. Ben Anderson, Miss Orva Jones, Miss Lila Reed, Mrs. Gladys Niles, Miss Margaret Bouma, and Mrs. Hay Hall; altos, Mrs. Ethel Fox, Miss Augusta Welsh, Mrs. Pearl Fitzsimmons, Mrs. Arthur Kurz and Mrs. Lois Findsen; tenors, Dr. C. J. Reed, Henry Cunningham, Lawrence

Arch Troubles are usually Shoe Troubles

--and will respond to a treatment of shoes fitted right.

By fitted right we mean a shoe that fits properly from the ball to the heel.

So many folks consider only the toe of the shoe, not realizing that the basic fit is the arch fit, and that while a little excess length at the toes will cause no discomfort, too much span from the ball to heel will weaken and cripple the arch.

"Arch Fitters" fit beautifully. They snug up to the arch nicely. And, being the right length from ball to heel, there is no stretching or straining on a shoe arch that is longer or shorter than the foot arch.

WALTER HAGEN'S EASY RACKET

By HENRY L. FARRELL
(United Press Sports Editor)

New York, April 6.—With plenty of money, very little work to do and only his public to keep off of him, Jack Dempsey, the world's heavyweight champion, is ranked as having one of the easiest rackets a dreamer could invent.

Dempsey can have a good time, and he does probably, but he is constantly asked to answer, "When are you going to fight Harry Wills?" and he is faced with the necessity of daily training to keep himself in shape for a fight that will have to come eventually if he does not retire.

The question of soft jobs and easy lives came up recently at one of the Florida baseball training camps where a number of players, baseball writers and officials were fanning in the lobby of a hotel.

A big car pulled up in front of the hotel, driven by a liveried chauffeur and a fashion plate stepped out.

"There's the fellow with the softest racket any one could want," one of the players said.

"Who's that?" a newcomer asked.

"That's Hagen," he answered. "Walter Hagen, the best golfer in the world, and a grand fellow with it."

Hagen, according to gossip, is making about $100,000 a year playing golf and showing others how to play the game. He has three cars, the best that are made, a chauffeur and several other servants, a manager and a magnificent home in one of the most beautiful sections of Florida.

He is accepted in the best society, has a high rating as a citizen and all of the comforts of life. He doesn't have to train seriously and he has no challengers to be bothering him and no one to pester him with questions, "When are you going to meet this fellow or that fellow?"

Hagen's success isn't the result of luck. He had natural talent, of course, but with it he was blessed also with shrewd foresight.

He was a fine semi-pro ball player when he was a youngster and he had an idea that he might make good as a professional but he decided that there was more of a future in golf and he gave up baseball and took up golf as a profession.

"I figured that the average life of a ball player in fast company was about ten years and then he would have to quit or go to the minor leagues at cut rates," Hagen said.

"There is no limit to the career of a golf player. I have been in the game for a number of years and I feel sure that I have at least five years of championship golf ahead of me. Harry Vardon won a national championship when he was 51 years of age and he is still a great golfer. If a player takes care of himself there is no age limit facing him."

Hagen is still a great baseball fan and he says his interest in the game helps his golf.

"Everyone gets bored, once in a while with his business and needs diversion," Hagen said. "I get mine out of baseball. I know enough about the fine points of the game to have more than a casual spectator's interest in it and I find that it is ideal diversion. I play all my golf on the course and I leave it in the club house at the end of each game."

MOTHER OF LLOYD HAHN, SPRINT STAR, REPORTED DYING

Falls City, Neb., April 6.—(UP)—Doubt was expressed by physicians here today that Mrs. H. T. Hahn, mother of Lloyd Hahn, American sprint star, would live until her son reaches her bedside.

Hahn was scheduled to arrive in San Francisco today on board the steamer Matsonia, which he boarded at Honolulu upon learning of his mother's critical condition. Mrs. Hahn is suffering from acute heart disease.

Hahn has been in Australia and the Hawaiian Islands representing the American Athletic union in track events.

Wiggins Defeats Fay

Louisville — Chuck Wiggins, Indianapolis, a promising light-heavyweight, defeated Harry Fay, in a heavy round of a 12 round bout. Local promoters announced that Wiggins has been signed to fight the derby eve fight here. The name of his opponent will be announced later.

I. C. C. IN RULING ON ROADS COMPETING WITH LAKE AND RAIL

Washington, April 6.—(UP)—The Interstate Commerce commission today denied railroads competing with the lake and rail traffic from eastern points to Minneapolis, the right to establish lower rates than those maintained to intermediate points in Iowa, southeastern Minnesota and western Illinois.

The rates would have applied on commodities particularly from New England states and Canada to the Twin Cities and would have included routes from Chicago, across Illinois, Iowa and Minnesota.

No relief was sought, however, over routes from the east beyond Chicago across Wisconsin to the Twin Cities nor was relief asked on traffic originating at Chicago moving over any of the routes mentioned.

COMMUNISTIC SCHOOL AT DULUTH THOUGHT MENACE

Duluth, April 6.—(UP)—Duluth's communistic school, conducted by the I. W. W., constitutes a menace to the northwest, Colt A. Pearce, Minneapolis, declared at a meeting here last night. As chief of staff of the 88th division he addressed a meeting of the Duluth army reserve and national guard officers.

"This school bears close watching," Pearce said. He told how the school was constituted and how it operated. One of the most effective means of combatting its "insidious influence," he said, was to "educate the youth of the country to be loyal to their government."

MILWAUKEE TO VOTE ON SEVEN BOND ISSUES

Milwaukee, April 6.—(UP)—Milwaukeeans today went to the polls to vote on seven bond issues, a justice of the supreme court, a civil judge, justice of the peace and a constable. A light vote was expected. There are no contests except for justice of the peace.

In the state the only election attracting much attention is the fight between Judge H. W. Sachtjen and Judge A. G. Zimmerman for election to the circuit court bench in Sauk and Dane counties.

Justice Franz C. Eschweiler is unopposed for reelection to the state supreme court.

STOCKS SHOW IMPROVEMENT

New York, April 6.—(UP)—Stocks showed further improvement today on a slightly increased volume of business. Trade news was good and the currency situation comfortable, call money being supplied at 4 per cent the greater part of the session, after renewing at 4 1/2 per cent.

Continued reflections of greatly strengthened technical conditions was afforded in the action of United States Steel, Allied Chemical, General Electric and other leading industrial, while optimism over the outlook for better earnings in the equipment industry than prevailed last year was mirrored in the buoyancy displayed by Baldwin, American Locomotive and other leaders of this group.

Indications that automobile demand was holding up fairly good style was used as a basis for a drive against the shorts in the motor group, which brought about new highs on the week's recovery in General Motors, Hudson, Nash, Studebaker and Dodge. Sugar shares were stimulated by a sharp uprush in South Porto Rico, while oils moved slightly upward under the leadership of General Asphalt. The market closed higher.

HOWARD SMITH OF LAWRENCEBURG, IND., SUES A MINISTER
